Welcome

It gives me great pleasure to welcome back athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers and spectators to the 2022 National Indoor Senior and U17 Championships following the cancellation of the event in 2021 due to the pandemic. It is fantastic to have athletes back competing indoors however it is very frustrating that athletes aged 18 and over are not permitted, due to the current covid restrictions, to compete in non-laned track events (400m and above) today.

Although 2022 is only a few weeks old we have already experienced some record breaking performances from our scottishathletics athletes with Murray Fotheringham entered in the High Jump/Long Jump having smashed the U20 CE record two weeks ago in Sheffield by 300 points. There has been a big entry with the prospect of some great head to head competition and with the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games due to be held in six months time this will be an opportunity for athletes to post a qualifying standard.

Athletes to look out for include: High Jump - Nikki Manson v Emily Borthwick; 60m/200m - Zoey Clark v Alyson Bell; 60m - Allan Hamilton v Greg Kelly (60m). Other athletes to look out for are Lewis McGuire (HJ), Alessandro Schenini (LJ), Reuben Nairne (PV), Heather Paton (60mH), Katie Johnson (800m), Meghan Porterfield (U17 Shot), Libby White (U17 TJ).

Thanks to Glasgow Life, the staff at the Emirates Arena, scottishathletics event staff and technical team for their help and support in preparing the facility for this event. All officials and volunteers give up so much of their time and work tirelessly to ensure that these Track & Field Championships are a success.

Finally, to the athletes competing today, enjoy and I hope you achieve the performance you are looking for.
